Mobile Technology in the Library
IF YOU'RE LOOKING AT THIS IN 2050

- The 2010 Pew Report says the same thing.
- The ACRL Research Planning and Review Committee said the same thing in it's 2010 top-ten list of academic library trends

This is a medieval person playing a sackbut... no kidding! I would like to try out a bamboula. Are you curious yet? Check out the database Oxford Music Online. For research on music and musicians, composers, performers, musical terms, instruments, etc., nothing beats the academic sources accessible through this database. All music styles are represented, from jazz, classical, and opera to rock and roll. So kick back and take a summer break with music.
